Whilst we must take care of our needs, of family, home and earning our way, the deeper, but no less real dimensions of life can be forgotten or dismissed.

But wait... turn around. For each person alive has a unique fingerprint, lives inside a body of the most stunning engineering and originates from a source that is totally unknown to us.

This is your life, our life, and it is meaningful.

Let us pause with awe and curiosity together as we gently search three great unknowns – What are we?

What is this great 'temple', the body for?

And what caused it to be?
